Payment of some or all of the estimated page charges associated with an article is voluntary. The editorial review of articles and administration of page charges are separate activities. Manuscripts are reviewed and accepted prior to soliciting page charges. Funds from page charges go to support the journals directly by keeping subscription prices low; providing open electronic access to some journals; and to archive most journal articles in an open access repository ArXiv <<http://arxiv.org>>. Page charges are billed at $45 per page.

Please return this completed form to the whether or not there are funds available for Page Charges.

1. Please indicate one:

- Some or all of the page charges will be paid.
- None of the page charges will be paid.

2. If you would like us to bill a grant or contract that supported the research for this paper, please give the necessary information for billing. This includes the grant or contract number and the date by which this grant or contract must be invoiced in order for page charges to be paid.

3. Name and address of the institution, organization, or individual whose name should appear on the invoice for page charges. Also note the name of the individual to whom the invoice should be sent (if applicable).

4. In the case of multiple authorship and multiple page charge payment, please indicate how the total page charges are to be allocated. Please be sure to include all the appropriate information in items 1-4 above for all authors.
